GENERAL GILMORE'S SIEGE WORKS. The Morris Island correspondent of the New York Times gives the following description of Gen. Gilmere's siege works :

THE WORKS ON MORRIS ISLAND. As the works on Morris Island-both for offensive and defensive operations—afford material for an important portion of the history of the siege, I shall endeavor to describe with minuteness their positions and form of construction. In doing so I will commence with the parallels-the first works erected by Gen. Gilmere after taking possession of the Island. The parallels, considered by themselves, are three in number, each of them extending from the beach on the right to the marsh on the left, The first is distant from Fort Wagner one thousand and two hundred yards, and from Fort Sumter about two miles. The second and principal parallel is so constructed that its left is six hundred and seven yards from Wagner, and the right seven hundred and fifty yards. The third and last parallel is four hundred and twenty-five yards from Wagner. The parallels are not built directly at right angles with the length of the Island, but in an oblique direction, the highest points resting on the The topography of the Island made it neces. sary to give them that direction, about one-half of the surface being marshy ground. The riflepits, which form the foundation of the first parallel, were thrown up shortly after our troops gained possession of the lower part of the Island, under the superintendence of the engineer officers of General Gilmore's staff. They were constructed in a single night, and used first in the attack on Wagner on the 15th of July. The interstices were subsequently filled in, and the first parallel erected. It is situated two miles from Lighthouse Inlet, is 225 yards in length, and has been the means of enabling much valuable service to be performed, although during the action, in consequence of the advanced works, it has been of secondary importance.

The next step taken was the building of approaches or trenches which should connect the first and second parallels. That work was finished in a brief space of time, the workmen having been protected by guns mounted on the first parallel. Next was constructed the second and main parallel, used both for offensive and detensive operations. It has a length of 125 yards, and, perhaps, of itself, may be considered as simply a defensive work, as the siege guns which are used in the offensive are mounted on earthworks just at the rear. Beyond the third parallel, which is the shortest of them all, being but 100 yards in length. Its distance from Fort Sumter is 3,350 yards. The third parallel is the advance work, and is used to protect the sharpshooters. All the works beyond the first parallel were constructed under the immediate supervision of Captain T. B. Brooks, of General Gilmore's staff. The upper end of the Island was formerly used as a quarantine ground, and when digging the trenches between forty and fifty cead bodies were exhumed. In erecting the works the workmen were obliged to perform their labors under the cover of darkness. The Rebel sharpshooters were constantly on the siert, and the moment a man showed the least portion of his person above the trenches during the day he was sure to be fired at. The enemy was supplied with telescopic rifles, by means of which he made some very excellent shots. Apart from the parallels, and at the left of them, are earthworks which contained guns of heavy calibre. Their mean distance from Sumter is 4,100 yards. It is a very formidable Still further to the left, and on the marsh, is another earthwork which faces Sumter. It is reached by means of a small creek which passes it at the left and flows into Lighthouse Inlet. It was the last of the fortifications constructed, and its sudden appearance one morning must have caused considerable surprise in the enemy's camp, he little suspecting that his foe would venture to mount guns on that particular spot.

SECRET DISEASES! A RADICAL CURE GUARANTEED DR. HENRY COOK.

OFFICE-No. 463 TWELFTH STREET. Between G and H Streets, WASHINGTON, D. C.

Dr. COOK guarantees in the following diseases a speedy and radical cure :

of both sexes, so formidable in their consequences, if neglected or entrusted to the treatment of unskillful and unexperienced physicians, are cured by Dr. Cook after a new method, and those who are so unfortunate as to be afflicted with such diseases should call upon the Doctor without delay. A practice of many years, during which he has cured numberless cases which had defied the skill of physicians of high reputation, warrants him in saying that every such disease, which is at all curable, can be cured by him. SECRET DISEASES curable, can be cured by him curable, can be cured by him.

afflicted with the diseases peculiar to their sex, and which may result disastronsly to their health and constitution, if medical assistance is not called in in time, should be very careful in choosing a physician, and if they would call upon Dr. Cook they would have reason in future days when in the enjoyment of restored health, to bless the hour when they heeded this advice.

All those suffering from syphilis or diseases of the sexual organs, will be cured speedily and radically by Dr. COOK if they apply to him either in person or by letter.

person or by letter.

The Doctor prepares all medicines himself, and warrants them to be free from mercury. Jy 28-lm* BOY'S CLOTHING.

WITHOUT METAL PLATE OR CLASPS.

DR. S. B. SIGESMOND. 110 Breadway, New York, and 260 Pennsylvania Avenue, between 12th and 18th sts., Washington, Calls the attention of the public to the following advantages of his improved system:

1. The Teeth of his manufacture will never corsode nor change color by any acids being three-fourths lighter than any other.

2. No teeth or roots need be extrated, as the artificial ones can be inserted over them.

3. The roots will be made inoffensive, and never to ache.

to ache.

4. No temporary teeth are needed, as permanent ones can be made immediately, thereby preserving the natural expression of the face, which under the old system is frequently disfigured.

5. This work has been fully tested over five years by many of the first chemists and physicians of this country.

Dr. S. has also invented a white undestructive metal filling, with which the most sensitive teeth can be filled without pain, and can build ub a perfect, sound tooth on any side roots, which will last through lifetetime.

Call and examine for yourself, TEETH.

I LOOMIB, M. D., the Inventor and Patentee of the MINERAL PLATE TEETH, attends personally at his office in this city. Many persons can wear these teeth who cannot wear others, and no person can wear others who cannot wear these.

Persons calling at my office can be accommodated with any style and price of Teeth they may desire; but to those who are particular and wish the purest, eleanest, strongest and most perfect denture that art can produce, the MINERAL PLATE will be more fully warranted.

From Rev. J. Neveton Brown, D.D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge. 1863] PENNSYLVANIA CENTRAL RAILROAD Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distract of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottless of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

my friend for directing me to the use of them.

J. NEWTON BROWN. Philadelphia, June 22, 1861. PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whisky or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per galion, the taste disguised by Anice or Coriander Seed.

This class of Bitters has caused and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind the device. licoholic Stimulants of the worst kind the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt. Get one bottle Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with three exarts of good Brandy or Whisky, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medical virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cast much less. Yes will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS!

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS. We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS" will cure nine-tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to examplife. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very laws and the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language.

PHILADELPHIA, Augusti23d, 1862. Messys. Jones & Evans.—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There Messes. Jones & Evans.—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain R. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House and sent to this city on board the steamer "State of Maine." frem which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances, and, accordingly, the physicions who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me.

frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth, below Arch st., advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles. I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian months, for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

I SAAC MALONE. Very truly yours

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to health.
